1 (Proceedings commenced 1:30 p.m., July 8, 2013.)

2 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Welcome. We are hoping that 3 Judge Johnson will be able to join us. He's still in the 4 middle of a proceeding, but I told him to just come in late and 5 so he may arrive unceremoniously, but better late than never.

6 The first order of business, we will suspend the rule
7 against cameras and video recordings in the courtroom. Please 8 feel free to take photos and videos of any part of this event.
9 It is an important day for everybody involved, and we are happy 10 to be a part of it.

11 We're happy to welcome you. After a long 4th of July 12 weekend where I'm still recovering from too much sugar and too 13 much potato salad, it is a thrill to welcome all of the newly 14 naturalized citizens to the larger American family. You're 15 here with your family and friends, and we are -- we are up here 16 representing the court, but also, as I said, the larger 17 American family that welcomes you into citizenship.

18 The second order of business is to introduce the 19 judges today. We have Judge Kelly Rankin to my left, to your 20 right. He's our Chief Magistrate Judge here for the District 21 of Wyoming.

22 My name is Nancy Freudenthal, and hopefully we will 23 have Judge Alan Johnson joining.

24 Above you, above the jury box, is Senior Judge
25 Clarence Brimmer. He's recently taken inactive senior status

1 and is spending the summer in Jackson. He always adds 2 wonderful remarks at this ceremony, and I know he is sorry to 3 be missing it today but is simply just too far away.

4 With that as a welcome, I will invite the Assistant 5 U.S. Attorney Levi Martin to do the roll call of citizens to be 6 naturalized.

7 MR. MARTIN: Thank you, Chief Judge Freudenthal and 8 Judge Rankin. Again my name is Levi Martin, and I'm here on 9 behalf of the United States Attorney's Office for the District 10 of Wyoming and in proxy for the United States Attorney General.

11 It is my privilege, Your Honor, to introduce to the 12 Court the following individuals who appear in person today for 13 a hearing on their representative petitions for naturalization 14 as United States citizens. And in order beginning with the 15 back row, top left: Lorena Garcia, native and former 16 inhabitant of Mexico; So Tie Tjeng, native and former 17 inhabitant of Indonesia; Samrawit Fikru Belew, native and 18 former inhabitant of Ethiopia; Margareta Stefanovic, native of 19 Serbia; Bonabe Caluza Vossler, native of the Philippines;
20 Blanca Flor Suarez, native of Mexico; Tripolyn Diez Johnson, 21 native of the Philippines.

22 And on the bottom left row we have Lamiz Goual, native
23 of Algeria; Palkeshkumar Chaudhari, native of India; Sugta 24 Pikatan Tan, native of Indonesia; Mohammad Piri, native of 25 Iran; Evelyn Maguire, native of Canada; Tiberiu Popa, native of 1 Romania; Eustacio Ramirez, native of Mexico; and finally, Your 2 Honor, Betty Anne Windom, native of Canada.

3           Each of these individuals have been interviewed and 4 examined under oath by a designated examiner of the United 5 States Citizenship and Immigration Services who has, in turn, 6 completed the character and background investigation.
7 Citizenship and Immigration Services indicates that each of 8 these individuals has met all requirements for naturalization 9 and is well qualified as a desirable candidate for United 10 States citizenship.

11           As a fellow U.S. citizen, I want to welcome and 12 congratulate each of these petitioners on this very special 13 occasion which just happens to fall, I guess, on the day after 14 the 4th of July weekend. So on the recommendation of the 15 immigration officer, it is my distinct honor to move that these 16 15 petitioners be granted United States citizenship upon the 17 taking of the oath. Thank you.

18           CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Thank you.

1 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: ...so help me God.

2 THE PETITIONERS: ...so help me God.

3 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Congratulations. I will be 4 shaking your hands and handing out certificates a little later.
5 We have a few presentations to make, a few more introductions 6 and a speaker, so please be seated.

7 Let's stand for the pledge of allegiance.

8 (Pledge of allegiance.)

9 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Please be seated. We are 10 pleased to welcome here today Barb Boyer, Heidi King and Dyan 11 Burns who are members of the Capital Quartet. And they will be 12 singing the "Star Spangled Banner."

13 ("Star Spangled Banner" performed.)

14 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: And now please direct your 15 attention to the video screens in the courtroom for the 16 President's video for naturalization.

17 (Video played.)

18 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Now, before the certificates
19 are handed out I wanted to make some additional introductions.
20 What I would like to do today, for the certificates and 21 presentations by the patriotic organizations and by the Wyoming 22 delegation is now introduce the individuals that will be making 23 the various presentations.

24 We are pleased that we have a number of patriotic 25 organizations here today who have truly enriched the

1 naturalization program by their participation and by their 2 hospitality.

3           After the ceremony, we will have a tea honoring and 4 recognizing the new citizens. The hostesses for the tea are 5 the Daughters of the American Revolution. Representing that 6 group today we have Pam Imig, Brenda Rath and Donna Weaver, 7 Regent. If you want to raise your hands so people know who you 8 are so they know who to thank when they attend the tea.

9           We will have American flags presented to the citizens 10 by the VFW 1881 Auxiliary, and the two members of that 11 organization are Hazel Johnson and Diana Shinneman.

12           We will have the American Flag Code presented by the 13 VFW-4343 Auxiliary by Mary Lou Lynn and Emma Fosnick.

14           We will have the Star Spangled Banner booklet
15 presented by the Colonial Dames, Judy Norman and Billie Neff.
16 Billie Neff is also standing in for the Colonial Dames of 17 America to present the Wyoming Constitution.

18           We will have the United States Constitution presented 19 by the American Legion No. 6 Auxiliary. Representatives here 20 today are Eva Moore, Frieda Warren, Martie Harbeck -- is that 21 correct -- Bernice Gertsch, and Linda Byrd.

22           And then the congressional delegation is back hard at 23 work in Washington, D.C. Their capable representatives who 24 will be presenting letters on their behalf is Debby McCann, 25 Jamie Gronski and Laura Weatherford. And I will wait to 1 introduce our speaker when we arrive at that time.

2           So at this point in time Judge Rankin and I will step 3 down in the center with our clerk of court who gavelled in the 4 ceremony, Tammy Hilliker, to hand out and shake each of your 5 hands. We will be handing out the certificates and other 6 paperwork associated with the naturalization.

7           When we're finished with that, we will step back so 8 that the presentations by the patriotic organizations can be 9 made and also the presentation by the letters -- or 10 presentation of letters by the Wyoming delegation.

11           What I would like to do when Judge Rankin and I get 12 down off the bench is invite the very back row to step out of 13 the jury box so that -- it is always hard to reach either -- 14 either we're reaching through somebody or trying to stomp on 15 people's toes in that back row, so I would like you to just 16 exit the back row and come around and make a part circle here 17 kind of in front of the clerk's desk so that we get the 18 certificates handed out to the right people. If you could stay 19 in the same order, that would be terrific.

20           So I think is it Lorena Garcia, you will be leading 21 that row.

22           Judge Rankin, are you ready?

23           JUDGE RANKIN: Ready.

24           CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Okay. Tammy.

25           Just file down and around so everybody can get down

1 out of the box.

2 Lorena Garcia.

3 So Tie Tjeng.

4 If anyone wants to come up, feel free to come up and 5 take pictures. Nothing bad will happen to you if you're on 6 this side of that area.

7 Samrawit Belew, congratulations.

8 Margareta Stefanovic, congratulations.

9 Bonabe Vossler, congratulations.

10 Blanca Suarez, congratulations.

11 Triplyn Johnson, congratulations.

12 Lamia Goual, congratulations -- just stay down here 13 because we will have other presentations to make. Just hang 14 out down here.

15 Palkeshkumar Chaudhari, congratulations.

16 Sugata Tan, congratulations.

17 Mohammad Piri, congratulations.

18 Evelyn Maguire, congratulations.

19 Tiberiu Popa, congratulations.

20 Eustacio Ramirez, congratulations.

21 Betty Windom, congratulations.

22 Now I would invite the members of the patriotic 23 organizations to come forward to make your presentations.

24 (Applause.)

25 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: I am pleased and honored to 1 have as our guest speaker for today's ceremony Dr. Fagan, who 2 is the Chief of Staff for Representative Lummis. He's officed 3 here in Cheyenne. Speaks to your judgment, Tucker, in terms of 4 not moving to D.C. and working out of there. We're happy to 5 have you in this building. We're particularly happy to have 6 you today address our new citizens.

7 DR. FAGAN: Thanks, Judge.

8 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Sir.

9 DR. FAGAN: I am an American citizen.

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Me, too.

11 DR. FAGAN: You are too. We know it is a long and 12 daunting task to become a citizen. You won. Look around this 13 courtroom at Judge Freudenthal, Judge Rankin, everybody here.
14 We have something in common. Our parents, grandparents, in 15 some cases great-grandparents did what you did, came to this 16 country, took that chance, made a difference. You should be 17 proud of yourselves. You did it, too.

18 I lived in a house with my grandmother. She came 19 across the ocean when she was 14 years old with nobody.
20 Penniless. She signed on as a cook for a very wealthy family 21 in New York City. She brought her perseverance. She brought 22 her name, and she brought herself to this country.

23 She raised a family, taught them integrity and 24 perseverance. My father was a 37-year New York firefighter.
25 He raised six kids. We all have at least a college education.

1 I'm in this room because of those two people. Think about it.

2 I spent 30 years in the United States Air Force. In 3 the Pentagon there are 23,000 people. One building. I was 4 picked to go teach the President of the United States in the 5 White House. I went over there and taught him and Colin 6 Powell, Secretary of Defense, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs. My 7 grandmother went through fourth grade; her grandson in the 8 White House teaching the President of the United States.

9 How does that happen? It is because in our country we 10 honor ability and your effort and your name, not royalty, not 11 privilege. This is what America is.

12 I am an American, so are you.

13 Thank you.

14 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Thank you, Tucker, for your 15 inspiring comments. We appreciate your taking the time today 16 out of your busy schedule, and I know the new citizens are 17 happy to have someone with your history, experience and 18 background addressing them today. Thank you very much.

19 I join everybody here present in congratulating you on 20 your new citizenship. I realized as I was speaking the oath 21 that for many of you a difficult part of that oath was where 22 you renounced allegiance to any foreign state or sovereignty.

23 I wish to remind you, though, that what you solemnly 24 renounced was allegiance to the government of another land.
25 You did not renounce, nor should you ever renounce, the 1 devotion you carry in your heart for your country of birth.

2 Preserve that always. It is part of you. You enrich us by 3 having that experience and having that history and having that 4 culture.

5           And for the benefit of your children and your 6 grandchildren, I was quite impressed that you have so mastered 7 English. For some of you it may be your third, fourth or fifth 8 language. I am always humbled that you have proficiency in 9 language, and I am an American with English and I stumble if I 10 am in another country at any of their phrases. So 11 congratulations on that step that you have taken.

12           But I also encourage you to preserve your native 13 language, your native culture and heritage. It not only helps 14 enrich your family; it enriches the country that you have now 15 joined as part of your family. For over 200 years this country 16 has been blessed with a constant infusion of new people, new 17 cultures, new languages, new heritage. You bless us with that 18 culture, heritage and experience.

19           Now I want to talk to you about our country. You may 20 hear voices in our country saying that there's only one true 21 American religion. Do not believe those voices. As an 22 American, you may freely and openly be a Christian, a Jew, a 23 Hindu, a Buddhist, a Muslim. You may adhere to any religion or 24 none at all. The choice is yours. It is your free choice.

25           You may also hear voices in this land saying that

1 there's only one true American way to think or American way to 2 believe on matters touching political, economic, social lives.
3 Don't believe those voices. As an American, you may freely and 4 openly adhere to political, economic and social views on the 5 right, on the left, or anywhere in between.

6           You may also hear voices in this land saying that 7 there's only one true American set of values. Don't believe 8 those voices. As an American, you may hold beliefs and values
9 that differ greatly from those around you. Even if you share 10 those values and beliefs and no one else does, it is your 11 right.

12           Simply stated, there no true American, there is no
13 true American way to think or believe. Conformity of thought 14 and principle runs afoul of the values upon which this country 15 was founded.

16           Now, Felix Frankfurter, a great man, came to this 17 country in 1894 from Austria. When he was 12 years old, he 18 became an American citizen, like you. He went on to become a 19 Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Justice 20 Frankfurter believed that in this country the highest office is 21 the office of citizen.

22           Each of you now hold that highest office in this 23 country, the office of citizen. You have assumed that high 24 office, and with it comes many rights and privileges. You have 25 read about those in your studies, the Bill of Rights and the 1 privileges that you're guaranteed under the Constitution.

2           With all of those privileges and rights, this country
3 asks only three things of you as obligations, and you addressed 4 some of those in the oath you took. You have the obligation to 5 serve in times of war if called and required to do so. You 6 have the obligation to pay taxes. And you also have an 7 obligation to sit if called on a jury. I hope some day to have 8 one or more of you in this courtroom sitting in that very same 9 jury box as a jury upholding the rule of law.

10           I also suggest that there are some other duties: The 11 duty to remain informed, the duty to vote, the duty to 12 participate in the political process. But most importantly, 13 perhaps above all of those secondary duties besides the ones 14 you took in your oath, is the duty to work to make the United 15 States of America the country you hoped to find when you got 16 here and the country that you want it to be.

17           Congratulations again. I welcome you as new citizens, 18 part of the American family, with all the rights and duties.
19 And I thank you for enriching us and choosing to make this 20 country your home.

21           Now I'm pleased to turn to Judge Rankin for some 22 remarks, sir.

23           JUDGE RANKIN: Thank you, Chief Judge Freudenthal.

24           And welcome. You are all now Americans. Before I add 25 any further remarks, I want to point out a distinguished guest

1 who I think just snuck in a moment ago. But Governor Dave 2 Freudenthal is present here this afternoon. Welcome, Governor 3 Freudenthal.

4 (Applause.)

5 JUDGE RANKIN: An interesting side note to the oath of 6 allegiance, the oath that you just took a few moments ago, has 7 been given to citizens such as yourselves for a long, long 8 time. It was first recorded as having been given in 1778 in 9 Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, during the American Revolutionary 10 War. So millions of immigrants, folks like you, Americans, 11 have taken this oath since that time. So something to ponder 12 in terms of just how many times that long oath has been 13 administered.

14 So what does it mean to be an American? Chief Judge 15 Freudenthal mentioned a moment ago what it means. It means you 16 get to vote, you get to be jurors now, and you get to enjoy all 17 of the freedoms and liberties of newly sworn citizens of these 18 United States. And no doubt, these are very important rights 19 and liberties that you will each enjoy for the balance of your 20 lives, rights and liberties, quite frankly, that people all 21 over the world enjoy.

22 But what else does it mean to be an American? But 23 most importantly it means that we are free. Abraham Lincoln 24 says that, "Freedom is not the right to do what we want, but 25 what we ought. Let us have faith that right makes might and,

1 in that faith, let us to the end dare to do our duty as we 2 understand it."

3 More than freedom, as President Theodore Roosevelt 4 once said, "Americanism is a question of principles: 5 Principles of idealism, of character. It is not a matter of 6 birthplace, of creed or line of descent."

7 I would only add that this country's power lies in its 8 citizens' uniqueness and in their unity. You are doing more 9 today than completing a legal process. You are making a 10 lifelong promise to uphold the laws and values that make 11 America what it is, that promise that comes with great 12 privileges of America citizenship and it also comes with, of 13 course, great responsibilities.

14 New employment and leadership doors are being opened 15 to you wide today. I would encourage you to explore what lies 16 behind each of those doors. And there's no doubt that all of 17 your communities have much to gain from each of you in the 18 years to come.

19 Again, congratulations and welcome. You have worked 20 incredibly hard to earn your citizenship and I know that I 21 speak for all Wyoming citizens and neighbors when I say we are 22 grateful to have you. Thank you.

23 (Applause.)

24 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: And now we will enjoy 25 another presentation, "America the Beautiful," performed by,

1 again, Barb Boyer, Heidi King and Dyan Burns from the Capital
2 Quartet.

3 ("America The Beautiful" performed.)

4 (Applause.)

5 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: And before we adjourn, I 6 want to again remind everyone that there will be refreshments 7 in the jury assembly room immediately following the ceremony, 8 and everyone is invited to join and congratulate our new 9 citizens.

10 But before we adjourn let's all give our newly 11 naturalized citizens a strong round of applause.

12 (Applause.)

13 CHIEF JUDGE FREUDENTHAL: Judge Rankin and I will stay 14 after the ceremony if you would like to have pictures taken.
15 Please feel free to come forward. We would love to chat with 16 you all. I have a bench trial that will be starting back up, 17 but I will take time to congratulate you and visit with you and 18 have pictures taken.

19 Again, there are refreshments across the hall in the 20 jury assembly room. We stand adjourned.
