IN RE APPLICATION OF AMENDMENT 782 TO
UNITED STATES SENTENCING
GUIDELINES.

Administrative General Order 2014-2
STEPHAN H. HARRIS, CLERK
CHEYENNE

GENERAL ORDER

In anticipation of retroactive application of Amendment 782 to the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the Court directs that the following procedure be used.

Disposition of all requests for sentence reduction requiring action by a judicial officer shall be handled by the Honorable Alan B. Johnson, District Judge.

The Federal Public Defender for the District of Wyoming is appointed to provide an initial advisement of the application of Amendment 782 to all defendants convicted in this District who may be eligible for a reduction of sentence. In the event that a conflict of interest prevents the Federal Public Defender from continuing representation of the defendant, a defendant desires to be represented by retained counsel, or a defendant wishes to proceed pro se, the Federal Public Defender shall file a pleading so advising the assigned judicial officer. The Court will arrange for the appointment of CJA counsel if there is a conflict of interest. Unless representation of a defendant is assumed by private counsel, CJA counsel, or the defendant chooses to proceed pro se, the Federal Public Defender shall present any request for reduction of sentence.

The Clerk's office promptly shall notify the Federal Public Defender of all pro se motions, petitions, or requests for sentence reduction which relate to Amendment 782.

Such requests will be reviewed by the Federal Public Defender and addressed in the manner described.

The United States Probation Office is authorized to disclose previously prepared pre-sentence reports to the defendant's counsel, Federal Public Defender, newly-appointed CJA counsel or privately retained counsel. The United States Probation Office and the Federal Public Defender shall coordinate with one other in an effort to locate all defendants who may qualify for a sentence reduction.

All requests for sentence reduction, opposition to a reduction or advisements of such matters as are described above shall be filed in the original criminal case.

Unless extended or modified, this Order shall expire on December 1, 2015.

Dated this 26 day of August, 2014.

Nancy D. Freudenthal, Chief U.S. District Judge
