

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

Plaintiff,

vs.

Case No. _____-NF-KHR

Defendant.

ORDER ON INITIAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

---

On _____, 2020 the Honorable Nancy D. Freudenthal, District Judge for the District of Wyoming sitting by designation in the District of New Mexico, held an initial pretrial conference in this case. Counsel participating were _____ for Plaintiff and _____ for Defendant(s).

Jurisdiction and Venue —

The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter, and venue is properly in the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico. Proper service of process has been accomplished on all parties, and no parties are erroneously joined in or omitted from the action.

Consent to Trial by Magistrate Judge —

The parties are all aware of the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and U.S.D.C.L.R. 73.2 and acknowledge that this case will proceed before the District Judge assigned hereto, and not before a Magistrate Judge. However, the parties are not precluded from consenting to trial before Magistrate Judge Mark L. Carman or Chief Magistrate Judge Kelly H. Rankin anytime sixty (60) days prior to the trial date.

Claims and Defenses —

Plaintiff's contentions. _____.

Defendant's contentions. _____.

Complexity of the Case —

The Judge is of the opinion that this is a non-complex case.

Amendments to Pleadings and Joinder of Parties — _____

The parties do/do not anticipate adding parties or otherwise amending pleadings at this time. The parties shall have until the above date to move to amend the pleadings and/or join additional parties in compliance with the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a).

Rule 26(f) Scheduling Conference and Self-Executing Routine Discovery —

The parties have/have not complied with the requirements of Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The parties have/have not complied with self-executing routine discovery exchange as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a).

Discovery Cutoff Date — _____

All written discovery requests must be served upon and received by opposing counsel on or before the discovery cutoff date. The parties have a continuing duty to supplement or correct all discovery disclosures or responses in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a). All discovery depositions must be completed by the discovery cutoff. Trial depositions – i.e., depositions that are not for discovery but only to preserve testimony for trial; see Kowalsky v. Dakota, Minn. & E. Rr. Corp., No. 07-cv-292-D, 2009 WL 10692837 (D. Wyo. Oct. 15, 2009) (Beaman, M.J.) – may be taken after the discovery cutoff, subject to the deadlines that will be set in the final pretrial order for deposition designations. The parties should not file notices of depositions, subpoenas or other discovery notices.

Expert Witness Designation —

Plaintiff's Designation Deadline — _____

Defendant's Designation Deadline — _____

In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2), the parties shall designate expert witnesses, including a complete summary of the testimony expected from each expert by the respective deadlines above. These summaries shall include a comprehensive statement of the expert's opinions and the basis for the opinions. See Smith v. Ford Motor Co., 626 F.2d 784 (10th Cir. 1980). The parties are each limited to one testifying expert witness for each field of expertise, absent a showing that complex issues necessitate expert witnesses with narrow, specialized areas of expertise within a larger general field. THE PARTIES SHALL FILE THEIR EXPERT DESIGNATIONS WITH THE COURT.

In cases where treating medical or mental health providers, including vocational rehabilitation specialists, may or will be called to testify in part or in full as an expert witness, the party calling the medical or mental health providers shall designate them as expert witnesses.

The party designating the expert witness shall set forth all special conditions or requirements which the designating party or the expert witness will insist upon with respect to taking their depositions, including the compensation the expert witness will require and the rate per unit of time for said compensation. In the event counsel is unable to include such information in the designation, counsel shall set forth in the designation his or her efforts to obtain the same and when such information shall be provided. Plaintiff may depose Defendant's experts after the discovery cutoff date but must complete the depositions at least fourteen (14) days before the final pretrial conference.

In any case in which a party (here assumed to be the plaintiff, but it could be any party) satisfies the criteria for a physical or mental examination under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 35, the Defendant(s) may require Plaintiff to submit to physical and psychological examinations by experts designated by Defendant(s) any time up to five full weeks before trial. Defendant(s) shall designate said expert witnesses no later than one week after the examination. Plaintiff may depose the examining expert witnesses any time during the last four weeks before trial. If Defendant(s) conduct an examination earlier than five weeks prior to trial, Defendant(s) must designate the opinions of the experts no later than twenty (20) days following the examination. Plaintiff may depose said expert any time before trial.

Non-Dispositive Motions —

Pursuant to the General Order Regarding Discovery Motions available at <https://www.wyd.uscourts.gov/sites/wyd/files/General%20Order%20re%20Discovery%20Motions%20KHR%20MLC.pdf>, the parties shall confer regarding any discovery dispute, and in the event the parties cannot settle the discovery dispute on their own, counsel shall jointly contact Chambers of the referral magistrate judge prior to filing any written discovery motions. All proposed orders regarding non-dispositive civil motions shall be emailed to Chief Magistrate Judge Rankin's Chambers (NMJudgeKHR@wyd.uscourts.gov) in a word processing format.

Telephone Status Conference – _____ at __:00 __.m.

At this time, the parties do/do not believe there will be dispositive motions. A telephone status conference is set to discuss whether the parties anticipate filing dispositive motions, if such motions can be obviated by agreement or stipulation, and the status of settlement efforts. Counsel should appear by telephone by calling into the following conference line: (877) 336-1829; access code 3509533; security code 2967.

Dispositive Motions — Hearing – _____ at _____ .m.

Dispositive Motion Deadline _____, Response _____

A dispositive motion hearing is set before Judge Freudenthal. The parties shall appear at the U.S. Courthouse in _____, New Mexico. Judge Freudenthal will hear the motion via videoconference. All briefs, affidavits and other materials in support of the party's motion or opposition are due by the above filing deadlines. If the dispositive motions are filed earlier than the above scheduled date, the responding party must respond in accordance with D.N.M.LR-Civ. 7.4. Parties relying on deposition testimony for their motions or oppositions shall also email the e-transcript version of the deposition(s) to Chambers (NMJudgeNDF@wyd.uscourts.gov). Together with their briefs, counsel shall file (in pdf) and email (in Word) to Chambers proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law supported by the record which reflect the position the party will take at the hearing. If a hearing is set on a dispositive motion, the Court does not allow reply briefs. If the dispositive motions or briefs thereon are filed earlier than the above scheduled dates, responses and replies shall be filed in the time periods provided in U.S.D.C.L.R. 7.4.

Final Pretrial Conference — _____ at _____.

A final pretrial conference is set before Judge Freudenthal at the U.S. Courthouse in _____, New Mexico. The parties will be notified of the exact location at a later date. Counsel shall appear in person. Judge Freudenthal holds the final pretrial conference in person.

Joint Proposed Final Pretrial Order. In sufficient time to submit a proposed order at least seven (7) days before the final pretrial conference, counsel for represented parties must confer to prepare and sign a joint proposed final pretrial order in the format provided on the District of Wyoming's website under "Forms." If you cannot locate the form, please contact Chambers. All represented parties are jointly responsible for the preparation of the proposed Joint Final Pretrial Order, but unless counsel otherwise agree, Plaintiff's counsel shall take the lead in drafting the joint final pretrial order. The proposed order must be emailed in Word to Chambers (but not filed) at least seven (7) days before the final pretrial conference.

Witness and Exhibit Lists. At least fourteen (14) days before the final pretrial conference, the parties shall exchange (but not file) witness and exhibit lists. The parties shall attach their exhibit lists (including objections, if any) to the proposed final pretrial order. The parties shall include their witness lists (including objections, if any) in the proposed order. The parties are not required to list rebuttal witnesses or impeachment exhibits. The parties shall separately identify will call and may call witnesses and shall state whether each witness will testify in person, by deposition, or if warranted under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 43(a), by videoconference. If either side wishes to present witnesses by videoconference, counsel shall note any objections in the proposed order.

Witness Statements. The parties shall exchange and file witness statements seven (7) days before the final pretrial conference. Witness Statements shall be provided for expert witnesses and witnesses whose testimony involves significant technical matters, but no significant issues of credibility. Witness statements shall be prepared and used at trial in accordance with Judge Freudenthal's Procedure for Presentation of Direct Testimony by Witness Statement, which is available on the Court's website under "Forms."

Exhibit List Format. Any exhibit not listed on a party's exhibit list is subject to exclusion at trial. The Court may deem any objection not stated on the exhibit list as waived. The parties shall use the following format.

Plaintiff(s) Exhibits	Objections (Cite Fed. R. Evid.)	Category A, B, C	Offered	Admit/Not Admitted (A) - (NA)*

* This column is for the judge's use at trial. The parties should not enter anything in this column.

The parties shall use the following categories for objections to exhibits:

A. Category A. These exhibits are admissible upon motion of any party and will be available for use by any party at any stage of the proceedings without further proof or objection.

B. Category B. Objections on grounds other than foundation, identification, or authenticity. This category is for objections such as hearsay or relevance.

C. Category C. Objections on only the grounds of foundation, identification, or authenticity.

Objections to Authenticity/Requests for Authentication. Any counsel requiring authentication of an exhibit must notify the offering counsel in writing within five (5) business days after the exhibit is made available for examination. Failure to do so is an admission of authenticity.

Format for Marking Exhibits. Exhibits must be prepared for the final pretrial conference and for trial as follows:

A. Marking of Exhibits: All exhibits must be listed and marked by the parties before trial, including the case number. The plaintiff(s) shall use numerals; defendant(s) shall use letters. For example, "Civil No. _____, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1;" "Civil No. _____, Defendant's Exhibit A."

If there are multiple parties, the surname or abbreviated name of the party shall precede the word exhibit, e.g., “Defendant Jones Exhibit A,” “Defendant Smith Exhibit A.”

B. Elimination of Duplicates. The parties should eliminate duplicates. If more than one party will offer the same exhibit, it should be listed as a joint exhibit on Plaintiff(s)’ list.

C. Copies for the Court. There is no need to provide paper copies of exhibits to the Court. The originals of any exhibits not submitted through JERS (see below) shall be provided to the Deputy Clerk as they are introduced and admitted at trial.

Motions in Limine. Motions in limine relating to the exclusion of evidence shall be filed no later than fourteen (14) days before the final pretrial conference. Responses shall be filed seven (7) days before the final pretrial conference. Each side shall file no more than one motion in limine to brief all evidentiary issues they wish to raise before trial. Motions in limine are not a second chance to raise discovery issues, dispositive arguments, or Daubert issues. Allegations that expert designations are faulty or fail to satisfy Daubert and its progeny shall be brought by motion in a timely fashion. Do not wait and file such objections in the form of a motion in limine.

Bench Trial — _____ at 8:30 a.m.

A bench trial of ___ days is set before Judge Freudenthal in the U.S. Courthouse in _____, New Mexico. The parties will be notified of the exact location at a later date. This case is stacked #1 on the civil docket.

Jury Evidence Recording System (JERS). The Court has implemented a system for electronic submission of exhibits to the jury known as JERS. The Court also utilizes this system for the submission and Court’s consideration of exhibits admitted during bench trials. JERS is not used for presentation of evidence during trial; counsel remain responsible for determining the format in which they will present evidence during trial. Attorneys shall provide their trial exhibits in electronic format on a USB drive, DVD, or CD to the Courtroom Deputy, Abby Logan, a minimum of five (5) days before trial. Counsel shall provide all electronic evidence in the following electronic formats:

- Document and Photographs: .pdf, .jpg, .bmp, .tif, .gif
- Video and Audio Recordings: .avi, .wmv, .mpg, .mp3, .mp4, .wma, .wav

Individual files should not exceed 500MB. If possible, exhibits approaching or exceeding the size limit should be separated into multiple files. Parties may obtain additional information regarding the submission of electronic exhibits by contacting Ms. Logan.

Proposed Findings and Conclusions. Plaintiff shall submit Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law at least ten (10) days before trial. Defendant shall submit its Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law five (5) days before trial. All proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law shall comply with Judge Freudenthal's Guidelines for Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law for Bench Trials, available on the Court's website under "Forms."

Exclusion of Certain Personal Data from Filings--

To promote electronic access to case files while protecting personal privacy and other legitimate interests, parties shall comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2. Parties shall refrain from including or shall redact the following information from all filings unless otherwise ordered by the Court: (a) Social Security Numbers, Taxpayer Identification Numbers, and Financial Account Numbers; if such numbers must be included, only the last four digits should be used; (b) Names of Minor Children; if the involvement of a minor child must be mentioned, only the initials of the child's name should be used; and (c) Dates of Birth; if a birthdate must be included, only the year should be used. The responsibility for redaction rests solely with counsel and persons filing the documents. The Clerk of Court will not review submissions for compliance.

Settlement Conference—

The requirements of Local Rule 16.2 of the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico requiring mandatory settlement conferences shall not apply to this case. However, the parties should contact Chief Magistrate Judge Kelly H. Rankin, Magistrate Judge Mark L. Carman, or (per Local Rule 73.4) a magistrate judge of the District of New Mexico if they are interested in court-assisted settlement or mediation. All settlement conferences or mediations will be conducted in New Mexico.

Settlement Possibilities —

The Judge considers settlement possibilities of this case to be good/fair/poor.

Modifications of Filing Deadlines and the Schedule —

The Court must approve any stipulated extensions of time for filing deadlines. The schedule established in this Order may be modified only for good cause and with the Court's consent. Barring unforeseen circumstances, the Court holds the final pretrial conference and trial dates firm.

Dated this ___ day of _____, 2020.
