

U.S. DISTRICT COURT CLERK'S COURTERLY

February 2022

Local Civil Rules Amended

The District Court's Civil Local Rules have been amended and adopted by the Court. The amended Civil Local Rules shall replace all prior versions of the Civil Local Rules and be effective on January 1, 2022; and shall apply in all respects to pending cases, motions, and matters filed on and after January 1, 2022, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

The Civil Local Rules can be found on our website on the "Local Rules & General Orders" page.

Vacancy Announcement: Term Law Clerk

The U.S. District Court for the District of Wyoming is seeking qualified candidates for a term judicial law clerk to United States District Judge Nancy D. Freudenthal. The term law clerk will support the Judge on civil and criminal matters pending before the Court, research legal issues, draft judicial opinions, prepare pre-hearing bench memoranda that identify issues for the Judge and questions for the parties, and assist the Judge in preparing for and conducting hearings, mediations and trials.

Judicial Security Bill Advances

A bill to protect federal judges and their families from threats and attacks has advanced to the full Senate, and a U.S. district judge from New Jersey whose son was slain by an angry litigant, urged Congress to pass the legislation without delay.

The bipartisan bill would protect judges' personally identifiable information from resale by data brokers. It would also allow federal judges to redact personal information displayed on federal government internet sites and prevent publication of personal information other businesses and individuals where there is no legitimate new media or other public interest.
