Judges Bring Oral Arguments to Law School Campuses

Law students were asked to set aside their casebooks to witness “justice in action” as Federal Circuit judges and attorneys recently gathered for oral arguments at three North Carolina law schools.

Funding Crisis Leaves Defense Lawyers Working Without Pay

The program that pays court-appointed private attorneys to represent indigent federal criminal defendants has run out of money, starting the clock on a painful three-month delay in paying these attorneys and their related service providers for constitutionally mandated legal work.

FRIENDLY REMINDERS TO COUNSEL:

Please adhere to our Civil Local Rules when filing a non public or sealed document. Absent prior Court authorization, no case or documents may be filed under seal or as non-public.

RULE 84.2 ADMISSION TO PRACTICE: Please Note: You may submit all attorneys being admitted in one motion rather than filing separate motions.

Our Mission: Employees representing the U.S. District Court for the District of Wyoming are committed to the impartial administration of justice. Driven by respect, integrity, and a dedication to excellence, we are here to serve the Public, Bar, and Court in a manner that will instill trust and confidence in the Judiciary. We endeavor to support a just and timely resolution of matters brought before the Court.
