Chief Standing Bear: A Hero of Native American Civil Rights In 1879, Chief Standing Bear persuaded a federal judge to recognize Native Americans as persons with the right to sue for their freedom. This established him as one of our nation’s earliest civil rights heroes.

Native American Heritage Month is observed every November. See this U.S. Courts webpage for additional case details.

New Jury Instructions to Strengthen Social Media Cautions

A federal Judiciary committee has issued a new set of model jury instructions that federal judges may use to deter jurors from using social media to research or communicate about cases.

FRIENDLY REMINDER TO COUNSEL:

Please adhere to our Civil Local Rules when filing a non public or sealed document. Absent prior Court authorization, no case or documents may be filed under seal or as non-public.

RULE 84.2 ADMISSION TO PRACTICE; Please Note: You may submit all attorneys being admitted in one motion rather than filing separate motions.
