2 THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. Good
3 afternoon, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to the Ewing T.
4 Kerr Federal Courthouse. The Court will suspend all rules on 5 cameras and recording devices. Regrettably, due to the 6 COVID-19 pandemic, we have limited attendance at this 7 proceeding. However, I do want to advise everyone that we are 8 livestreaming this ceremony via YouTube, and that link can be 9 found on the Court's website at www.wyd.uscourts.gov.

10 We'll also have the conference call line available 11 and open here in a minute. And if you have just tuned in to 12 the www.wyd.uscourts.gov website, you'll need to hit your 13 refresh button in order to get that to load because we just 14 put that link up here a little while ago.

15 It is the tradition at the beginning of these 16 naturalization ceremonies to recognize those citizens and 17 families of those citizens who have paid the ultimate price in 18 defending what so many in this world seek, the freedom and 19 benefits of being a United States citizen. As of this 20 morning, 7,053 American men and women have been killed in 21 action while involved in military operations in the Middle 22 East. In addition, 53,248 military personnel have been 23 wounded in action during these same military operations. Let 24 us take a moment of silence and recognize these American 25 heroes and their families, whose sacrifice cannot be measured

1 and whose loss will never be recovered.

2 (Moment of silence.)

3 THE COURT: The United States District Court for the 4 District of Wyoming is in Special Session for the 5 naturalization of foreign nationals to be United States
6 citizens. It is with great honor, pride, and privilege that I
7 have the opportunity to conduct today's ceremony, naturalizing
8 four of you who originate from four different countries around 9 the world: Cuba, Mexico, Nicaragua, and Turkey.

10 The Federal District Court of Wyoming, including 11 Judges Johnson and Freudenthal, extend their congratulations 12 to you and your families. I would ask the Deputy Clerk of 13 Court to take a roll call of prospective applicants for U.S.
14 citizenship, and if you could just please stand when your name 15 is called.

16 THE COURTRoom DEPUTY: Patricia Cata Dechapelle, Jose
17 De Jesus Reyes Lopez, Roger Danilo Lopez, Sibel Williamson.

18 THE COURT: All right. One of the most fundamental 19 acts that we do as citizens is pledge our allegiance to the 20 flag of the United States. Recent events have caused that 21 pledge to take on renewed spirit and meaning. I would ask 22 that you join me in the Pledge of Allegiance, and then we'll 23 remain standing for The Star-Spangled Banner.

24 (Reciting the Pledge of Allegiance.)

25 (Playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner.")

1 THE COURT: Thank you. Please be seated. At this 2 time, I would ask the Clerk of Court to play the message from 3 the President of the United States.

4 (Playing the message from the President of the United 5 States.)

6 THE COURT: At this time, I would recognize the 7 United States for the making of the motion for granting the 8 petition for citizenship. One moment.

9 Good afternoon, Ms. Martens.

10 MS. MARTENS: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Let me see if I can get this to work.
12 All right. I think we have you.

13 MS. MARTENS: Perfect.

14 THE COURT: Ms. Martens, does the United States have 15 a motion that it wishes to make at this time?

16 MS. MARTENS: I do, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I would hear you on your motion.

18 MS. MARTENS: Thank you. And may it please the 19 Court. Before the Court today are individuals here for a 20 hearing on their petitions for naturalization. Each of these 21 prospective citizens have successfully completed all the steps 22 necessary for eligibility for United States citizenship. In 23 addition, the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service has 24 completed its process with respect to each of these 25 individuals, including all necessary background

1 investigations. Having successfully negotiated all of these 2 hurdles, we are advised that each of them is well-qualified to 3 be granted citizenship.

4 Therefore, on behalf of the United States, it is my 5 pleasure to move that this Court admit each of these 6 individuals to United States citizenship upon the taking of 7 their required oath. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Martens. On the petition 9 of the United States, the Court would find that each of these 10 applicants identified has satisfied the legal requirements to 11 become citizens of the United States and, therefore, will 12 grant the petition and enter an order allowing these 13 petitioners to become citizens of the United States of America
14 upon taking of their oath, which I would administer at this 15 time. And if you would please rise and raise your right hand.

16 I, state your name, hereby declare, on oath, that I
17 absolutely and entirely -- and each of you, if you'll repeat
18 after me. Sorry. Hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely 19 and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity 20 any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of whom 21 or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I 22 will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the 23 United States of America against all enemies, foreign and 24 domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the 25 same; that I will bear arms on behalf of the United States

1 when required to do so by law; I take this obligation freely
2 without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help
3 me God. Congratulations.

4 (Applause.)

5 THE COURT: At this time, I would excuse you,
6 Ms. Martens, if you wish to leave, or you may remain online.

7 MS. MARTENS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Have a good afternoon.

9 All right. One moment. The documents you've been 10 waiting for.

11 (Distribution of certificates.)

12 THE COURT: And at this time, Ms. Temte has handed 13 you letters from our Wyoming Delegation -- you can go ahead 14 and have a seat, if you wish -- and those letters come from 15 those individuals that are elected to the United States 16 Senate, Senators Barrasso and Enzi, and House of 17 Representatives, Congresswoman Cheney. So some information in 18 there for you. And obviously, those papers and documents are 19 important. The Immigration and Naturalization Service has 20 contact information. Keep those with you if you ever find the 21 need to contact them or to get additional documents.

22 At this time, I would recognize each of you to make 23 any statements that you would like to, to your friends and 24 family that can't be here with you. If you would just want to 25 state your name and anything that is significant to you and

1 your family and your friends today upon becoming a United 2 States citizen.

3 (Discussion off the record.)

4 THE COURT: I want to congratulate you, your 5 families, and friends. I'm sorry that they couldn't join you 6 here today in this courtroom on this momentous occasion. As 7 many of you have acknowledged, but for them, you wouldn't be 8 doing what you're doing today, and that is a great compliment
9 to them and how they've supported you.

10 I have contemplated, during this pandemic, to delay 11 these proceedings; but you've worked hard enough, and it's 12 important that you become United States citizens as soon as 13 you can. And you've waited long enough, as you noted, 14 Mr. Lopez, to have this day.

15 So thank you for what you and your unique experiences
16 and traditions and background add to the rich fabric of this 17 country. Thank you for wanting to become part of it. And 18 while this country is not perfect, for over 240 years, it 19 has provided a sanctuary for freedom and served as an 20 incubator for the opportunity and advancement of all. And 21 with your energy, skills, and talents, I encourage you to make 22 us more diverse and talented and exercise your rights to this 23 democracy and vote.

24 Also, remember that the freedoms that you enjoy don't 25 exist unless we exercise them. And it's important that we all

1 do that, those of us that were gifted by birth with 2 citizenship and those that have worked to obtain it today.

3 This is the greatest nation on earth, but to remain 4 so, we must appreciate how and why we enjoy the freedoms that 5 we do. It is not because we all think and believe the same,
6 but rather, it is because we respect each other's diversity
7 and beliefs, which allows we, the people, to govern ourselves.

8 You are now part of this richly woven fabric of the 9 United States of America. We are not one individual but a 10 collection of many, united to form a more perfect union. May 11 it always be that way, and may God continue to bless you and 12 the United States of America. Congratulations, and we'll 13 stand in recess at this time.
